

Organization:

The Florida City Community Redevelopment Agency operates under a Board of Directors composed of the Mayor, the four City Commissioners and two appointed individuals who live in or own property in the City. The Board meets as needed, but usually meets immediately prior to City Commission meetings on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Meetings are publicly noticed by the City Clerk. The Community Redevelopment Agency Bylaws designate the Mayor as Chairman of the Community Redevelopment Agency Board and the Vice Mayor is designated as the Vice Chairman.

The current members of the Board are:
